Examples of questions to students to support their Quests & Questions:

- What do you notice?
- Do you have any recurring thoughts/feelings when you are working on that?
- What do you want to change or be better?
- Do you have a plan for this? What do you think the next step would be?
- How do you want this to sound?
- Is there a part of your body that you are paying more or less attention to?
- What do you want the audience to notice when you perform this?
- What do you think needs to happen to get to your goal?
- What do you feel drawn towards in this piece? Do you have a favourite part? What is the most challenging part of this piece?
- Do you have ideas about how can I help you right now?
- What will you focus on during your practice?
- What have you been doing in practice time that has really helped with this?
- Is there a main problem to solve or something creating the most friction?
- What did you do in another situation when you had a challenge like this?
- How could we try it again in a way that is simpler or easier?
- How could we make it even more fun?
- What are the other options to explore? What do you want to stop?
- What do you think is the most important thing to do when you try again? What will you remember, prepare, or think about?
- What was it like when you first played this piece compared to now?
- What have you done so far to change how this sounds?
- How have you tracked your progress so far? How will you track your progress going forward?
- Does this piece of music remind you of other music, art, movies, etc?
